VENUE SUMMARY VIDEO

b. BUILDING

At number 30 Gran Vía Street stands a sumptuous building since 1924, a work of Teodoro Anasagasti and his father-in-law José López Sallaberry, -also architects of the well-known Paris-Madrid building-, which still today harmoniously combines the classical with the contemporary.

It belongs to the second section of the Gran Vía, then called Bulevar de Pi y Margall. It is a set of three united buildings, a symbol of the culture and power of the time. The building stands out for its dark blue glass and its triple arched entrance on the street level.

C.VENUE

At sky level, above Madrid's main thoroughfare, stands ASTER: a bright, multidisciplinary event space open to anyone looking to enjoy an exclusive and distinctive atmosphere. From the fourteenth floor, the glass facade that encloses a 225-square-meter duplex with terrace offers a panoramic view of the capital with no architectural barriers.

*Maximum capacity: 50 people simultaneously (this figure includes all staff: waiters, agency personnel, venue staff, technicians, etc.)
